

Borderline disorders of glycoregulation

Borderline disorders of glycoregulation are considered to be the boundaries between normal glucose tolerance and diabetes mellitus:

- impaired fasting glucose ('IFG),
- impaired glucose tolerance (impaired glucose tolerance, IGT).