

Drop test

The drop test is used to prove a rupture of the supraspinatus tendon. It is performed as follows:

Passive elevation to the horizontal → we release the arm → it drops to 60° abduction

Links

Source

- PASTOR, Jan. Langenbeck's medical web page [online]. The last revision 2009, [cit. 17-03-2023]. <<https://langenbeck.webs.com/>>.