

Griesinger's flag

Griesinger's symptom - a mydriatic and stiff pupil homolateral to the bleeding side. The symptom is usually present during epidural hemorrhage due to oppression III. cranial nerve (n. oculomotorius), which normally allows pupil miosis.

Source

- ws:Griesingerův příznak

related articles

- Anisocoria
- Mydriasis
- Miosis