

Pancoast tumor

Pancoast tumor is a form of peripheral bronchogenic carcinoma, that grows from the lung tip into the retroclavicular space, where it can affect the nerve plexuses.

Typical symptoms are:

- upper limb and shoulder pain of the affected side
- Horner's syndrome (Horner's trias).

Definition, pathogenesis, symptoms, complications, treatment.

Links

Related articles

- Lung tumors
- Bronchogenic carcinoma

References

- KLENER, Pavel, et al. Propedeutika ve vnitřním lékařství. 3, přepracované edition. Praha : Galén, 2009. 338 pp. ISBN 978-80-7262-643-4.