

WikiLectures:Administrators

Administrators are the "superiors" of Head Editors. They manage the running of the entire wiki and coordinate the further development of the WikiLectures. In addition, they have permission to take actions that are irreversible, may affect the security of WikiLectures, or whose misuse could cause widespread damage.

A

This user is a member of WikiTeam on the level administrator.

In addition to administrator permissions, they may:

- Grant and remove access rights' to other users.
