

Endergonic Reaction

Endergonic reactions are events or processes that are (by themselves) energetically disadvantageous under physiological conditions (the change in Gibbs energy is positive,  $\Delta G > 0$ ) and can therefore only take place if they are directly connected to a reaction (event) that gives it energy.

Links

- ws: Endergonická reakce

Source

-