

Nitric oxide (FBLT)

Nitric oxide is a vasodilator produced by endothelial cells.

It is formed from L-arginine by a reaction catalyzed by NO-synthase.

NO-synthase occurs not only in endothelial cells, but also in some cells of the immune system and in some neurons. It is a cytotoxic substance.