

Pectoral Major muscle

Beginning: the medial part of the clavicle, the sternum and the first six ribs.

Attachment: crista tuberculi majoris humeri.

Innervation: nn. pectorales laterales (C5–C7); mediales (C8,Th1) – pars supraclavicularis plexus brachialis.

Function: clavicular part - auxiliary function during forearm pronation.

Sternocostal and abdominal part - adduction, internal rotation.
Accessory inspiratory muscle.

Links

Related Articles

- Chest muscles

References

- ČÍHÁK, Radomír. Anatomy 1. 2. edition. Grada, 2001. 497 pp. pp. 344 - 345. ISBN 80-7169-970-5.