

Phenolphthalein

Phenolphthalein is an acid-base indicator with a transition region at pH 8.2–10.0. It is one of the most frequently used indicators, it is used, for example, in acid-base titrations .

Phenolphthalein