

Strangulation

Strangulation is used in two senses:

Squeezing the throat with an object (throttle, hand) – according to the mechanism, we distinguish between strangulation, hanging, suffocation. Asphyxia occurs, death occurs by suffocation.

2. Nerve vascular constriction – causes non-bleeding and gangrene of the affected area (intestines).

Bowel constriction when entering a pathological cleft.

Intestinal strangulation

References

Related articles

- Volvulus
- Invagination
- Sudden abdominal events in children

Source

- <http://lekarske.slovniky.cz/>