

Sulfosalicylic acid

Sulfosalicylic acid solution is used to detect protein in urine. After adding a few drops of the solution to a urine sample with protein, the proteins will be denatured and turbid. The reaction is very sensitive. More details in the article Urine/chemical examination.

- ws:Kyselina sulfosalicylová