Obesity

Dear user Acmrcsoares,

thank you very much creating a new article Obesity. It looks very good already. I can see you're working hard on it, very good job! During random check there were discovered some coincidences between your text and some external pages. Please, be really careful about that. F.e. paragraph about Social effects and Effects on Society resembles article at this page (<http://www.dwp.gov.uk/publications/specialist-guides/medical-conditions/a-z-of-medical-conditions/obesity/effects-obesity.shtml>); paragraph Signs and test is quite like these pages (<http://www.google.cz/search?sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&q=The+health+care+provider+will+perform+a+physical+exam+and+ask+questions+about+medical+history%2C+eating+habits%2C+exercise+routine.+Some+of+the+tests+include+measurement+of+skin+fold+to+check+your+body+fat+percentage%2C+blood+tests+to+look+for%C2%A0thyroid%C2%A0or+endocrine+problems%2C+which+could+lead+to+weight+gain.>). Please try to formulate those parts otherwise, you will avoid copyright complications. I can see you are still working, so that it shouldn't be a problem I guess :). I wish you a good luck finishing it. If you need any help, do not hesitate to ask me or anyone else from editorial board.

Have a nice weekend ----
