Unfinished articles

Dear user Dhilon,

I have recently noticed you created 3 new articles with no content. Are you going to finish them? If you're planning to do so, we would be very happy to see those articles. I would be very grateful if you could write some answer on this page, so that I can be certain, that you are not computer robot.

Thank you very much for your contribution, I hope to see some nice articles from you. If you need any help don't hesitate to ask me or any member of editorial board. ----

The reason is simple - they all are copyrighted and I should delete it. I will try to replace them with simmlar pictures, but if you could help with replacing pictures, I would appreciate it.

Hygiene and Epidemiology

Hello Dhilon,

let me thank you for the great job you did with exam topics in Hygiene and Epidemiology. You have found out how to create an article, you have written a studying material for thousands of medical students and you are able to work with WikiLectures now.

We would be very pleased if you continue in contributing to WikiLectures. You can expand your old articles or write new ones – no matter what topic you will choose. Do not forget that editorial board is ready to help you all the time!

And if you think there should be any improvement, please, provide us a short feedback. Thank you very much!
