

Virchow's triad

Virchow's triad includes three factors which cause venous trombosis.

The factors are:

1. hypercoagulable state;
2. blood stasis;
3. damage of the vein endothelium.

References

Related articles

- Thromboembolic disease
- Pulmonary embolism
- Thrombosis

Source

- ČEŠKA, Richard, et al. Interna. 1. edition. Praha : Triton, 2010. pp. 855. ISBN 978-80-7387-423-0.